Velidity of the Government Questioned

† SRI S. R. BOMMAI (Hubli Rural).—I am on a point of order, Sir. The House is not constitutionally constituted and consequently there is no constitutional Government in this State which is answerable to the questions raised by members here. To buttress my point of order the first point is that the House is not properly constituted. You were pleased to get a list of members immediately after the general election. You were elected on Congress (I) ticket.

SRI K. BHASKAR NAIDU.—The Hon'ble Member should not be allowed to speak as this is a question hour.

MR. SPEAKER.—Please have some patience. The Hon. Member is allowed to speak and he is speaking. Have some patience.

SRI C. M. IBRAHIM:—I am on a point of order.
